In passing Jap an, she went so near the shore that the Japan forts fired at the vessel. We are indebted to Captain Babcock for the following news:

The losses in the British attacking fleet amounted to 53 officers and men killed and wounded. The fleet, at latest dates, was on its way back to

We regret to hear by this vessel of the death of Dr. Geo. M. Bates, of Japan, son of A. B. Bates, Esq., of this city.

Mr. S. C. Hillman, formerly of this city, returned in the A. E., from China, having we hear been very fortunate pecaniarily, during his stay in China, where he was employed in the Imperial Army.

The cholera was prevailing extensively at Shanghae, and sweeping off hundreds of the for-eign residents. We hear that two of the San Francisco pilots who visited ithis port last April in the Dan'l Webster, Messry. Abbott and Palmer, died of that plague. Capt. Shelly was also reported sick.
